2012 BY THE NUMBERS

0	Coaches in the history of the bowl system who have a better career bowl winning percentage than Tom O'Brien.
1	Players in Wolfpack history with more TD passes in a season than Mike Glennon's 31 in 2011 (Philip Rivers had 34 in 2003)
2	Jersey number of Rashard Smith and the number of positions he played in two contests last year (wide receiver and cornerback)
3	C.J. Wilson's career interceptions
3	C.J. Wilson's career interceptions returned for touchdowns
4	Players who joined the program in January: freshmen Bryce Kennedy, Quincy McKinney and Manny Stocker and transfer Deylan Buntyn
4	Assistant coaches on the 2012 staff who have been with Tom O'Brien for 10 or more years
4	Number of schools that won a bowl game, advanced to the Sweet 16 in men's basketball and advanced to a Super Regional in baseball in 2011-12 (NC State, Florida, Florida State and Baylor)
5	Coaches on Wolfpack staff who have been in the coaching profession for more than 30 years
6	Touchdowns Mike Glennon was responsible for in the regular-season ending win over Maryland. He threw for five and ran for one to tie the school record
7	Former Tom O'Brien assistant coaches who have gone on to be collegiate head coaches
9	Members of the football team who graduated in the spring of 2012
12	Schools who have won bowl games each of the past two years - the Pack is included in that number.
13	Interceptions David Amerson pulled down in 2011 - an ACC record and the second-highest mark in FBS history.
16	Years Associate Head Coach for Defense Jon Tenuta has been a defensive coordinator at seven different schools
16	Where former Pack standout and No. 1 pick in the 2006 NFL draft Mario Williams ranks on the Forbes list of highest paid international athletes.
19	Tom O'Brien's rank in total wins among current FBS coaches

22	Assistant coaches under O'Brien in his 15 years as a head coach
30	Quarterback pressures by defensive end Art Norman in 2011.
33	Career starts for senior safety Brandon Bishop - team leader in that category. That mark ranks fifth among all returning ACC players.
42	Top-12 Wolfpack single season offensive marks the Pack has posted under head coach Tom O'Brien
43	Combined career snaps from scrimmage played last year by the seven players listed on the preseason organizational chart at linebacker.
52	Spots NC State's athletic program jumped in the Director's Cup standings from 2010 to 2012 - the highest two-year jump in ACC history
79	Pack players who have earned their degrees in the past nine graduation ceremonies
80	Tom O'Brien's winning percentage in bowl games for his career - the best mark ever for an FBS coach.
112	Combined career starts for the returning players on the offensive line
124	Combined career starts for the returning players in the defensive secondary
246	Years of combined experienced for State coaching staff
300	Percentage of the top 10 most experienced returning players in the ACC who play for the Wolfpack in terms of career starts. Brandon Bishop ranks fifth with 33, while R.J. Mattes and Earl Wolff are tied for ninth with 30.
.583	The winning percentage of O'Brien against nationally-ranked teams in his five seasons at NC State (7-5)
1999	Year that assistant coach Troy Walters won the Biletnikoff Award as a player at Stanford.
7670	Combined career snaps for the five projected starters on the offensive line
100,000+	Dollars raised for cancer research in three years since spring game has been renamed the Kay Yow Spring Football game

2012 PREVIEW

PACK STACKED WITH SENIOR STARTERS

In 2012, Wolfpack head coach Tom O'Brien has a luxury that he hasn't been afforded in previous campaigns with the Wolfpack: senior starters. On his spring organizational chart, 13 spots on offense and defense are pencilled in with the names of seniors who have starting experience in the past.

That number is almost double the most senior starting experience O'Brien has had during his first five years with the Wolfpack. The number is particularly high on offense, where eight of the 11 starting spots are slated to be filled by seniors with previous starting experience.

Three Pack players rank among the most experienced returning players in the ACC in terms of career starts: safety Brandon Bishop (5th), OG R.J. Mattes (t9th) and safety Earl Wolff (t9th).

For the 2008 season, there were only two projected starters who were seniors with starting experience. In 2009, there were seven.

OFFENSE		DEFENSE
Pos	Name, Career Starts	Pos	Name, Career Starts
LT	R.J. Mattes, 30	RE	Brian Slay, 13
LG	Andrew Wallace, 14	MLB	Sterling Lucas, 2
C	Camden Wentz, 26	FS	Brandon Bishop, 33
RG	Zach Allen, 26	BS	Earl Wolff, 30
TE	Mario Carter, 2	BC	C.J. Wilson, 29
QB	Mike Glennon, 13
HB	James Washington, 17
WR	Tobias Palmer, 7

OFFENSIVE LINE HOLDS STEADY

Wolfpack fans might get a feeling of deja vu when they watch the 2012 version of the offensive line. All five projected starters on the OL have started games during their careers, while four plus a projected backup have been season-long starters. The players returning on the line have combined to start 112 games in their careers, three are redshirt seniors and one is a true senior.

Here are some notes on the experience of the offensive line:

- ✓ The last time that any one other than Senior Zach Allen started at right guard and senior Cam Wentz started at center was November 28, 2009. That duo has started every game of the past two seasons at their respective positions.
- ✓ Senior R.J. Mattes has started 30 contests at three different positions - 12 at right tackle, eight at left guard and 10 at left tackle, where he is slated to start in 2012.
- ✓ Andrew Wallace started every game of the 2010 regular season at right guard (and two in 2009) before suffering a knee injury in practice for the Champs Sports Bowl. Last season he played in just two games for a total of eight snaps as he continued to recover.
- ✓ Although junior Rob Crisp is the youngest member of the starting five on the offensive line, he is the only player on the line who started a game as a true freshman. Crisp got the nod in the season opener of 2010 - his first collegiate contest.
- ✓ Backup right guard Duran Christophe also has starting experience - he's gotten the nod in 13 career games.
- ✓ The five projected starters on the OL have combined for 7,670 snaps from scrimmage in their careers.

SECONDARY IS PRIMARY

Seems like it wasn't too long ago, three years to be exact, that the secondary was one of the weakest positions on the Wolfpack squad. That year, 2009, a true freshman named Brandon Bishop started five games at field safety and a red-shirt freshman named Earl Wolff was the starter at boundary safety in four games. Another red-shirt freshman, C.J. Wilson, started four games at the field corner and two true freshmen started at the boundary corner: Rashard Smith and Jarvis Byrd.

With such inexperienced players seeing such significant action at those crucial positions, it was no wonder that the unit was considered the team's achilles heel, allowing the opposition to complete .626 of its passes and pulling down just eight interceptions.

Those numbers were slightly better in 2009, as those freshman starters became sophomore starters. The group improved its opponent completion percentage to .606 and pulled down nine INTs.

Flash forward to 2011: Bishop, Wolff and Wilson are starters for the third consecutive season and a talented corner named David Amerson has joined the quartet in his second year as a starter. The difference? Opponents complete just .575 of their attempts and the group pulls down a school-record 27 INTs.

This year, that group is one of, if not THE, strongest units on the squad due to experience. Returnees in the defensive secondary have started a combined total of 124 games at those four positions.

Here's a look at the improvement of the defensive secondary over the past three campaigns:

Year	Opp. Comp. %	Interceptions	Career starts Prior to season
2009	.626	8	31
2010	.606	9	72
2011	.575	27	124

THE PICKOFF ARTIST

It doesn't make much sense, but teams continued to throw at Wolfpack field corner David Amerson even after he set a school record for interceptions in 2011. Amerson led the nation in picks with 13, an ACC record and the second-best mark in FBS history. Even after winning the Jack Tatum Award and being one of three finalists for the Thorpe Award, he still had enough balls thrown in his vicinity to pick off two passes in the Belk Bowl win over Louisville.

Amerson tied the ACC single-season INT record with his 11th pick against Clemson on November 19. He set the school mark against North Carolina on November 5, breaking the record that had been set just a few years before he was born: Art Rooney (of the Pittsburgh Steeler Rooneys) held the record with eight in 1937 and again in 1938!

Here's a look at the all-time FBS leaders in interceptions for a season.

Rank	INTs	Name, School	Year
1.	14	Al Worley, Washington	1968
2.	13	David Amerson, NC State	2011
	13	George Shaw, Oregon	1951

PACK IS PICK-Y

The Wolfpack set a school record and led the nation with 27 interceptions last season, a tally that tied as the second best mark in ACC history. The best news for the 2012 Pack is that 23 of those 27 picks were made by players that are returning. In addition to cornerback David Amerson, who led the nation with 13, safety Brandon Bishop had five, Earl Wolff had three while Darryl Cato-Bishop and C.J. Wilson each had one.

The only players with picks who will not compete this season are linebackers Terrell Manning and D.J. Green. Manning, who pulled down three INTs last year, declared early for the draft, while Green, who had one, is ineligible.

David Amerson picked off his first pass of 2012 in the Kay Yow Spring Football Game.

Safeties Earl Wolff and Brandon Bishop are two of the top 10 most experienced returning players in the ACC for 2012.

#GUNITLIKEGLENNON

This is Mike Glennon's team.

The fifth-year senior silenced the critics by throwing 31 touchdown passes, gaining over 3,000 passing yards and completing .625 of his throws in 2011. In fact, only three quarterbacks in ACC history have thrown for more TDs in a season. What makes those impressive numbers even more remarkable is that he did that in his first year as a starter, while under intense national scrutiny.

From the jump, Glennon seemed comfortable in his role as the starting quarterback. By year's end, he was clicking on all cylinders, completing 66% of his passes for 1,043 yards, throwing 11 TDs to only three interceptions, and posting a 141.35 efficiency rating in the last four games of 2011.

This year, all of the question marks are gone and Glennon is the established field general for the Pack. Sporting News recently ranked him as one of the top quarterbacks in the country for the upcoming season and with his ability, experience and knowledge of the State playbook, he should battle for all-conference honors in 2012.

Here's a look at where some of Glennon's numbers rank in the Wolfpack record books:

 team qualified for bowl under O'Brien's guidance, but he did not coach actual bowl game.*

"ONCE A MARINE, ALWAYS A MARINE"

Wolfpack head coach Tom O'Brien is quick to tell you that there is no such thing as a 'former' Marine. And even though it's been almost 40 years since he traded the title of "Major" for that of "Coach," the hundreds of young men that he's mentored throughout his second career would undoubtedly agree that in his case, those words are definitely true.

The discipline, habits and values O'Brien learned in the Corps still permeate how he leads his life and how he runs his football program. At the age of 63 he can still probably fit comfortably into his dress blues. Every day, rain or shine, he heads out for a three-plus-mile run. He often scatters Marine jargon and sayings into his conversations. And his best friends are still his classmates and teammates from the Naval Academy.

"I don't know if you ever leave the Marines," he says. "Somewhere your life may take a different turn, but those core values never leave. The things that you learn in the Marine Corps go with you through life."

"A FEW GOOD MEN"

The 2012 season will mark O'Brien's 38th in the coaching profession. He began his career as the Marine officer assigned to the Naval Academy staff and, five years later, resigned his commission to become a full-time assistant.

For the past 15 years, O'Brien has been at the helm of his own program, serving for 10 years as the head coach at Boston College and for the past five at NC State. He enters his 16th season as a head coach ranked 19th among active FBS coaches in wins with 108. He posts a bowl winning percentage of .800, the best mark in college football history.

O'Brien says the values that led him to join the Marine Corps are the same ones he strives to instill in the young men under his direction as a coach - values like commitment, honor and courage.

He believes that only with those attributes can his team achieve the goal he has for the Wolfpack program: to be champions on the football field, champions in the classroom and champions in the community.

"To be successful, a football team has to embrace the idea of selflessness," he continues. "The whole is better than the individual. If each man believes that the person behind him and in front of him and to his right and to his left are more important than he is, we can be a championship football team."

His NC State program is definitely headed in that direction. In the past three years, the Wolfpack has posted the third-best overall record in the Atlantic Coast Conference and State is one of only 12 programs nationally that has notched bowl victories each of the past two years.

"IMPROVISE, ADAPT, AND OVERCOME"

When O'Brien was named NC State's head coach in December of 2006, he took over a program that had posted three straight losing seasons and had won just three games that year.

He brought six assistants with him from Boston College and together they began to implement the tried-and-tested system they had run with success there. When faced with obstacles, O'Brien stuck to the old Marine adage "Improvise. Adapt. Overcome."

His 2007 squad opened the season 1-5, then pulled together and won four straight games, including a win over 18th-ranked Virginia and tough road wins at East Carolina and Miami. Despite the slow start, his first Wolfpack squad went into the season finale with a bowl bid on the line.

In 2008, O'Brien's team was decimated by injuries early in the season and entered the month of November with a 2-6 record. But there was no sense of panic around the Wolfpack locker room. Instead, the coaching staff stood true to its plan and things began to click. The team finished the season with four straight wins and an invitation to a postseason bowl.

That season will go down as one of the most rewarding of O'Brien's career, as his team became the first in ACC history to start the season 0-4 in league play and finish 4-0. The bid to the Papajohns.com Bowl marked the ninth bowl invitation in the past 10 years for O'Brien. His freshman quarterback, Russell Wilson, became the first rookie in the history of the Atlantic Coast Conference to be named first-team all-conference at his position and it marked the sixth time in his then-19 years in the league that a quarterback under O'Brien's tutelage was named the All-ACC signal caller.

The 2009 campaign was another marked by injuries for O'Brien's Wolfpack. Victories over eventual Big East Champion Pitt and a third straight win over rival North Carolina highlighted the season.

The 2010 Wolfpack finally began to reap rewards. With nine wins, including a victory over No. 23 West Virginia in the Champs Sports Bowl, the squad tied for the second-highest win total in school history. The team finished the season ranked No. 25 - the first postseason ranking for NC State since 2002. His team won five conference games and came within one win of playing for the ACC title. O'Brien was named a finalist for the 2010 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award.

In 2011, another rash of injuries slowed the Pack early, but a victory over seventh-ranked Clemson and a fifth-straight victory over UNC helped the squad become bowl eligible. The team posted a victory over Louisville in the Belk Bowl - the eighth bowl win of O'Brien's head coaching career.

"The Marines teach you to be mentally tough," says O'Brien. "That mental toughness is necessary to be successful in any endeavor, but especially in a sport like football."

"WE DON'T PROMISE YOU A ROSE GARDEN"

O'Brien recalls the recruiting slogan for the Marines when he was growing up: "We don't promise you a rose garden." That straightforward challenge appealed to the young man from Cincinnati.

O'Brien received a community-minded Jesuit education at St. Xavier High School that helped him earn his appointment to the Naval Academy. At Annapolis, where he was a three-year starter at defensive end, he learned to combine his hard work with discipline and leadership skills, traits that prepared him to become a Marine officer when his football career ended.

After his 1971 graduation from the Naval Academy, he served nine years in the Marines, beginning his football coaching career as an assistant for Navy's plebe (freshman) team, then serving at the Quantico Marine Base in Virginia and tours of duty in California and Japan. He eventually reached the rank of major in the Marine Corps Reserve.

In 1975, O'Brien returned to Navy as a Marine officer assigned to head coach George Welsh's staff. In 1980, he resigned his commission and was hired by Welsh as a full-time assistant coach. But O'Brien didn't accept before he examined all of his available options. To this day, he credits Welsh with allowing him to interview with several major corporations before accepting the coaching position. After examining all of his options, he chose a profession that wasn't for the faint of heart, deciding he'd "rather coach than work for a living."

O'Brien spent seven years under Welsh at the Naval Academy, coaching the team's tackles and tight ends and serving as recruiting coordinator. He was responsible for recruiting All-America and hall of fame running back Napoleon McCallum to the Naval Academy.

In 1982, O'Brien followed Welsh to Virginia, where they turned the Cavaliers into a nationally prominent and successful football power. In O'Brien's 15 years there, Virginia had winning seasons 12 times, won four bowl games and was ACC co-champion. O'Brien was the Cavs' offensive coordinator in his final six seasons. During his tenure, Virginia consistently ranked among the top offensive teams in the Atlantic Coast Conference. In 1996, the Cavaliers scored more than 320 points for an ACC-record eighth consecutive year.

O'Brien got his first opportunity to lead a major college program in December, 1996, when he took over at Boston College. There, he turned around a program that had been wracked by a gambling scandal and instability. After leading the Eagles to back-to-back 4-7 seasons in 1997 and 1998, O'Brien led BC to an 8-4 record in 1999 and the third-best turnaround in the NCAA I-A ranks. He then guided the Eagles to eight consecutive winning seasons and an NCAA-best eight consecutive bowl appearances. He posted nine-win seasons in four of his final five years at Chestnut Hill, posting a 75-45 record and leaving the school with more wins than any coach in Boston College history. Heading into the Eagles' 2006 bowl game, BC ranked as the 18th winningest program of the 21st century (from 2000-06).

Just as impressively, O'Brien's teams were successful in the classroom. The American Football Coaches' Association gave him its 2004 Academic Achievement Award for posting a 100 percent graduation rate. He received Honorable Mention status seven additional times during his tenure at Boston College. BC was ranked No. 1 in the country by USA Today when that publication re-ordered its 2005 regular-season poll and the final 2005 football Top 25 by APR (Academic Progress Rate) score to measure a combination of athletic and academic success. HEAD COACH TOM O'BRIEN

O'Brien left, BC boasted the highest success rate for football among any ranked team.

Following the 2006 regular season, the job at NC State opened up and O'Brien jumped at the chance to return south to a large public institution where football is a centerpiece for students, alumni and fans. Upgrades to Carter-Finley Stadium and the commitment to building a strong football program cemented O'Brien's decision.

"THE MARINE CORPS DOESN'T BUILD CHARACTER, IT REVEALS IT"

O'Brien and his staff have relentlessly pushed the Wolfpack to become champions in the classroom. In the last nine graduation ceremonies, 79 members of the squad have earned their degrees. Upcoming graduation rates that include players recruited by the current staff are improving.

NC State's football squad has also increased its community involvement under O'Brien. The squad has served at the Raleigh Rescue Mission, made countless school visits and has become increasingly involved with the Marine Reserves Toys for Tots campaign. The team has taken several visits to Camp LeJeune to visit the "Wounded Warriors" and in March of 2009, a few players and staff members spent their spring break helping rebuild hurricane-ravaged homes in Mississippi.

O'Brien has also focused on the Wolfpack's rich football history as he attempts to get former players involved with the program. For the last five springs, he has welcomed back more than 300 former Wolfpack football players for a two-day reunion around NC State's spring football game, which he renamed The Kay Yow Spring Football Game and uses to raise money for cancer charities. An all-star collection of players have been on hand, with representatives from more than six decades.

"NOT AS LEAN, NOT AS MEAN, BUT STILL A MARINE"

O'Brien has spent his career influencing his peers and his players. During his 15 years as a head coach, he has mentored 22 assistant coaches - seven of whom have gone on to be collegiate head coaches.

"The best way to be a leader, as an officer or a coach, is to surround yourself with talented people and then give them the support they need to do their job."

He has also been recognized for his valuable contributions to the communities where he has served. He is on the board of directors for the Marine Corps' Toys for Tots Foundation and has spearheaded a campaign at NC State that raised tens of thousands of dollars and thousands of toys from Wolfpack fans. He also received the John F. Kennedy National Award, given to "an outstanding American of Irish descent for distinguished service to God and country" in 2005.

O'Brien is married to the former Jennifer Byrd of San Diego, who is a member of the board of directors for Rostro de Cristo (Face of Christ), a program whose mission is to provide spiritual and educational opportunities for young people from the United States to live out the Gospel of Jesus Christ together with the people of Ecuador. They are the parents of three children: Colleen Frances, a 2002 Boston College graduate who is an associate producer at ESPN; Daniel Patrick, a 2005 BC graduate who is on the Elon football staff; and Bridget Jean, also a 2005 BC graduate who is the Museum Coordinator for the Historic Charleston Foundation.

WINNINGEST BOWL COACHES (1869-2011)

Based on Winning Pct, Min. 10 games

In the history of college bowl games, no head coach has ever posted a higher winning percentage than State's Tom O'Brien. During his 15 years as a head coach at Boston College and NC State, O'Brien has won .800 of his bowl games, posting an 8-2 postseason slate.

That stat from Sports-Reference.com includes coaches at major schools from 1869 - 2011. Here's a list of the top 10 in that category:

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS: With first-year starter Mike Glennon at QB in 2011, his total of 31 touchdown passes on the season was second-best in school history, and also ranked second in the ACC on the season. Glennon also tied school records for TDs thrown in a game (5) and touchdown responsibility in a game (6) in the comeback win versus Maryland. In 2010, helped coach second-team All-ACC performers Russell Wilson (QB) and Owen Spencer (WR). Wilson led the conference in total offense, passing and touchdown responsibility and ranks second in ACC history for his career in that category. The 2010 Wolfpack offense was first in the league in passing offense, second in scoring offense and fourth in total offense. Bible's offense also led the ACC in first downs, and was second in time of possession. In 2009, QB Russell Wilson led the ACC in touchdown passes and ranked fourth nationally with 31. Between 2008-09 Wilson set an NCAA record with 379 pass attempts without an interception. Also in 2009, wide receiver Owen Spencer broke his own ACC record for yards per catch with a 25.5 mark to lead the nation. In 2008, Wilson was the first-team All-ACC quarterback and ACC Rookie of the Year. He led the ACC in passing efficiency (133.93), total offense

(213.0 ypg) and touchdown passes (17) and had the fewest interceptions nationally (1). As a team, the 2008 Wolfpack ranked third in the ACC in passing offense and fifth in total offense. NC State offense has posted marks that rank in the top-10 in school history in completions, attempts, passing yards, and completion percentage during each of his three years back with the program. The 2007 Wolfpack squad set the school record for pass attempts (502) and posted the second-highest completion tally (281) in school history. NC State threw for 2,948 yards in 2007, the fifth-highest total ever for a Pack squad. The 2005 Boston College squad led the ACC in total offense, averaging 387.8 yards per game. The 2006 Eagle offense ranked second in the league with 355.6 yards per contest and led the ACC in passing yards at 241.2, turnover margin at 1.15 and first downs. BC quarterback Matt Ryan was named first-team All-ACC in 2006. Nominated for the 2000 Frank Broyles Award, given to the top assistant coach in the country. Quarterbacks coach for the 1990 Cincinnati Bengals squad which won the AFC Central Division championship and advanced to the playoffs. Coached at NC State under Tom Reed for three seasons in the 1980s, mentoring former Wolfpack greats such as Erik Kramer, Haywood Jeffries, Naz Worthen and Danny Peebles.

PROFESSIONAL PLAYERS COACHED: At NC State - T.J. DESMOND 'DES' KITCHINGS

Furman '00 | Running Backs, Tight Ends | 9th year in coaching

PLAYING EXPERIENCE: College - A standout receiver/return specialist at Furman. As a senior in 1999, Kitchings helped Furman win the first of three conference championships. He ranks among the school's all-time leaders in receptions and returns. As a specialist, he averaged a SoCon record 29.3 yards on 33 kickoff returns, four of which went for touchdowns - also a school record. A consensus all-Southern Conference selection as both a receiver and returner, Kitchings earned All-America honors as a return specialist in 1999 after leading the NCAA I-AA division in return average. He became the youngest inductee into the Furman Athletics Hall of Fame in 2009.; Professional - selected by Kansas City in the 2000 NFL Draft, and spent four years on practice squads and rosters of NFL squads.

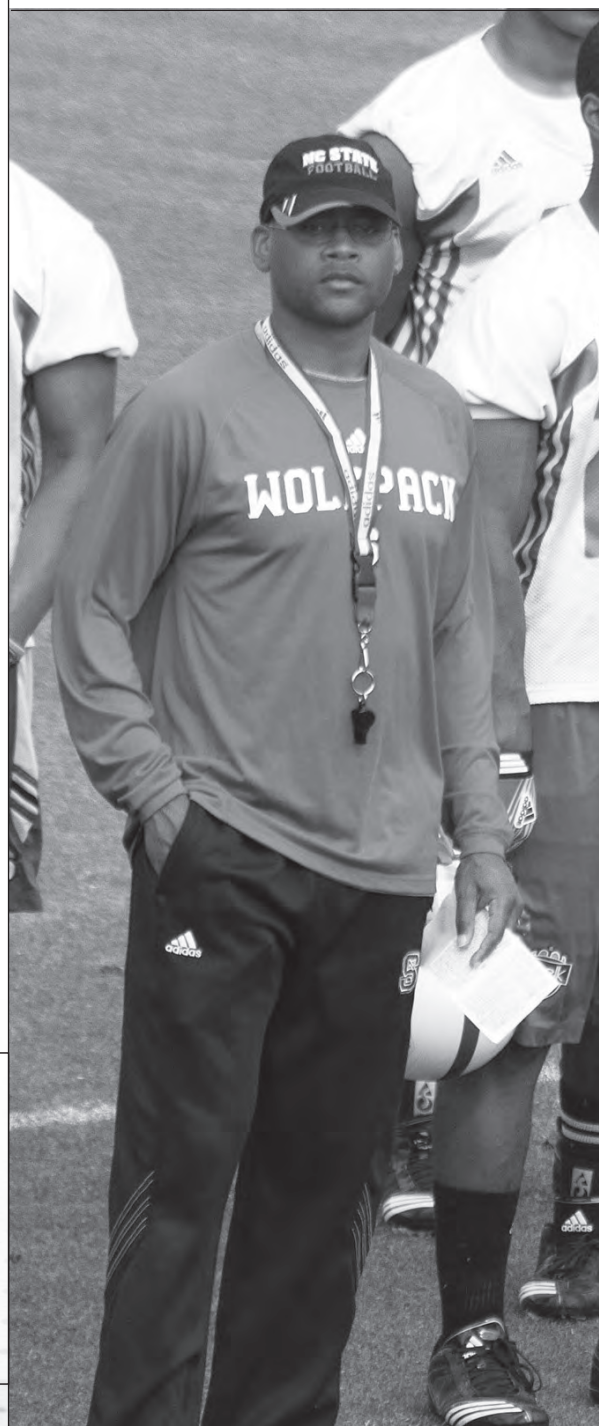

EDUCATION: Earned a B.S. in health and exercise science from Furman in 2000.

PERSONAL DATA: A native of Wagener, S.C., Kitchings and his wife, Heather, have three children.

BOWL EXPERIENCE: At Air Force - 2012 Military Bowl. At Vanderbilt - 2008 Music City Bowl

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS: As a coach - In his one season at Air Force, 2011, the Falcons ranked third nationally in rushing averaging 314.8 yards per game. Air Force also finished third nationally with 43 rushing touchdowns. Served as Vanderbilt's offensive coordinator for the 2010 season. He was a key player in the development of true freshman tailbacks Warren Norman and Zac Stacy, who ranked 1-2 on the team in rushing in 2009, with Norman producing one of the finest all-purpose campaigns ever by an SEC freshman. He ended the season as the SEC Freshman of the Year and a freshman All-American. Prior to his time at Vanderbilt, Kitchings coached at Furman from 2004-07 where he was the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. He helped mentor Larry Hedden, Willis Sudderth and John Rust to all-conference recognition. During his tenure at Furman, the Paladins went 10-3 and captured a conference title in 2004, and advanced to the NCAA I-AA national semifinals in 2005.

2011 GAME REVIEWS

NC State 43, Liberty 21

September 3, 2011 | 6 p.m.
Carter-Finley Stadium | Raleigh, N.C.
55,564

Defense ruled the day for NC State as the Wolfpack rode a school-record seven takeaways to pull away from Liberty in the second half. Four of State's six touchdowns were set up by turnovers. A fifth came on an 82-yard punt return. The sixth was set up by a long kickoff return.

The Mike Glennon Era at quarterback got off to a low-key but successful beginning. The fourth-year junior started slowly, missing his first three passes and four of his first six, but he picked up the pace after that. Glennon connected on four of his last five passes of the first quarter and finished 18-of-31 passing for 156 yards and a touchdown. He did not throw an interception. Pass protection was an issue at times as Liberty sacked Glennon four times.

The Flames controlled the early action, stopping NC State's first possession on three plays and then driving 47 yards on 13 plays before punting. And so it went for a time. Liberty held a 7-3 lead with less than four minutes remaining before halftime when T.J. Graham gave State the momentum with an 82-yard punt return for the Pack's first TD of the season. The PAT attempt failed, but the Wolfpack had the lead at 9-7. Two plays into the ensuing Liberty possession, linebacker D.J. Green intercepted Mike Brown at the Wolfpack 43-yard line, setting up a 10-play, 57-yard scoring drive that culminated with a one-yard TD run by James Washington and a 16-7 NC State lead.

The defense really began to take over the game midway through the third quarter. Brian Slay got it started by returning a fumble 52 yards for a touchdown and a 23-7 lead. Liberty answered with a touchdown 23 seconds later, but the ensuing kickoff was short, and Graham returned it 44 yards to the Liberty 33. Curtis Underwood ran it in from there, a 33-yard scamper that pushed the Wolfpack lead to 30-15.

State added two more touchdowns in the fourth quarter, both set up by Liberty miscues. Slay's second fumble recovery of the game put the Wolfpack in business at the Flames 43 with 7:40 to play, and Glennon finished that drive by connecting with Mario Carter for a three-yard touchdown pass. Two plays later, David Amerson got his second interception and returned it 47 yards to the Liberty 19. Washington took it to the house on the first play of the drive to make it 43-21.

Wake Forest 34, NC State 27

September 10, 2011 | 3:30 p.m.
BB&T Field | Winston-Salem, N.C.
32,423

NC State's fourth-quarter rally was impressive but came up a touchdown short as Wake Forest defeated the Wolfpack at Groves Stadium for the fifth time in a row.

The Deacons rode the hot passing of Tanner Price and a big-play offense to a 17-3 second-quarter lead, and 20-6 at halftime. Freshman place kicker Niklas Sade accounted for the Wolfpack's only scores of the first half with field goals from 45 and 37 yards.

Price connected on his first eight pass attempts. Price hit Michael Camanaro on a 31-yard touchdown pass, and Campanaro later threw a 40-yard TD strike to Danny Dembry on a flanker reverse. By the time NC State's offense finally caught a spark in the second half, the hole was just too deep.

The Wolfpack's second-half comeback certainly had them squirming on the Wake Forest sidelines. NC State's Mike Glennon completed 17 of 29 pass attempts for 263 yards and three touchdowns in the second half.

The second-half rally began with a 19-yard touchdown pass to tight end George Bryan, the 14th touchdown reception of his career, which tied him with Haywood Jeffries and Nazrallah Worthen for seventh in school history for career touchdown receptions.

The rally continued with a pair of Glennon bombs for touchdowns. The first went for 65 yards to Tobias Palmer with 11 seconds left in the third quarter, the first TD catch of Palmer's career and the longest pass of Glennon's career. The second was a 63-yard strike to T.J. Graham on 4th-and-10 with 5:34 left in the game, the longest touchdown catch of Graham's career. That trimmed the Wake Forest lead to seven points.

The State defense responded with a three-and-out, and after the ensuing punt the offense took control at its own 34-yard line with 3:26 to play and a chance to tie the game. Glennon completed his first three passes of the drive, and the fourth was incomplete because of pass interference. The Wolfpack moved the ball to the Wake Forest 38 before the drive finally stalled on downs with 1:31 left.

NC State 35, South Alabama 13

Mike Glennon had a career day, completing 17 of 20 pass attempts for 274 yards and four touchdowns, and T.J. Graham caught five passes for 128 yards and a TD as the Wolfpack methodically coasted past the Jaguars.

Glennon set several single-game career bests, including touchdown passes with four, longest touchdown pass (a 67-yard bomb to Graham), and pass-completion percentage at .850. That figure is the best by a Wolfpack QB in a single game since Philip Rivers completed 26 of 30 passes for an .866 completion percentage in the 2003 season opener vs. Western Carolina. The last NC State signal caller to throw four touchdown passes in a game was Russell Wilson, who did so in last year's season opener, against Western Carolina. Glennon completed his first nine pass attempts.

The 67-yard TD pass to Graham was the longest reception of Graham's career. He went over the 100-yard mark for pass receptions for the second game in a row, becoming the first State receiver to do so since Jericho Cotchery in 2003.

NC State overcame slippery field conditions that led to four Wolfpack fumbles, three of which the Pack recovered. South Alabama only fumbled once, but the Wolfpack also recovered that one, and cornerback David Amerson and safety Brandon Bishop came away with interceptions. Two of the three takeaways led directly to NC State touchdowns.

NC State scored on the game's first possession, a 54-yard drive that Graham set up by returning the opening kickoff 46 yards. James Washington, who carried the ball six times on the nine-play drive, scored on a one-yard plunge to give the Pack a 7-0 lead with 10:59 left in the quarter.

The Wolfpack's next two touchdowns came on Glennon passes to fullback Taylor Gentry, a one-yard pass with 12:43 left in the second quarter and a five-yarder with 10:06 left in the third. The multiple-touchdown game was the first for Gentry, who became the first NC State player to catch two TD passes in a game since Graham burned Western Carolina in the 2010 season opener.

Gentry's two touchdowns gave NC State a 21-3 lead, and the Pack pulled away from there. Curtis Underwood caught an 18-yard scoring pass from Glennon late in the third quarter, and the Glennon-to-Graham bomb was the game's exclamation point.

Cincinnati 44, NC State 14

Nippert Stadium | Cincinnati, Ohio.

T.J. Graham set a school record with 336 all-purpose yards, including a pair of long touchdown catches, but NC State had a long night of it otherwise as the potent Bearcats jumped to an early lead and never looked back.

Graham broke the previous NC State single-game all-purpose record by 39 yards. He caught seven passes for 176 yards, including an 87-yard touchdown catch that was the fifth-longest catch in school history. Graham's 176 yards receiving is the 10th best single-game mark in school history.

Graham now owns the fifth-longest pass reception and longest kickoff return (100 yards vs. Boston College in 2008) in school history, and is tied for the third-longest punt return (87 yards vs. North Carolina in 2010).

After stalling on its first drive of the game, Cincinnati jumped to a 21-0 lead by scoring touchdowns on its next three possessions, two of which were set up by NC State turnovers. The Wolfpack got on the scoreboard with 4:24 left in the first half when quarterback Mike Glennon connected with Graham for an 87-yard bomb, but the Bearcats answered with a 26-yard field goal with 1:06 left in the half to take a 24-7 lead at halftime.

The Glennon-to-Graham connection worked again late in the third quarter, this time on a 49-yard TD strike, but Cincinnati had a 34-14 lead by that point. The Bearcats scored the game's last 10 points.

Several NC State players reached personal milestones during the game. George Bryan caught a pair of passes to become the most prolific pass-catching tight end in program history. Bryan now has 99 career catches, one better than T.J. Williams (2002-04).

In addition, sophomore cornerback David Amerson picked up his fourth interception of the season. And linebacker Audie Cole led the Wolfpack defense with a career-high 16 tackles.

2011 GAME REVIEWS

21 Georgia Tech 45, NC State 35

October 1, 2011 | 3:30 p.m.
Carter-Finley Stadium | Raleigh, N.C.

Georgia Tech scored three unanswered touchdowns to start the game, then scored three more unanswered TDs to begin the fourth quarter and held a 42-14 lead with 10:07 left to play. NC State scored on five of its last eight possessions and outscored the Yellow Jackets 21-3 over the final 7:47, but the outcome was long since decided by that point.

The Pack had a big day offensively, compiling 387 total yards, including a season-best 192 yards rushing. Tailback James Washington carried 20 times for 131 yards and a touchdown, a career high in rushing yards for Washington, and the most yards by a State running back in four years. Washington also was the NC State's leading receiver with five catches for 35 yards.

Georgia Tech seized momentum early in the game on a trick play on special teams. On 4th-and-10 from their own 48-yard line, the Jackets ran a fake punt, with upback Jemea Thomas taking the long snap and rushing 27 yards to the Wolfpack 25. The Yellow Jackets made it 7-0 four plays later, then scored on their next two possessions while stopping NC State defensively to take a 21-0 lead.

The Wolfpack offense came to life following Tech's third TD, mounting a 19-play, 81-yard drive that ate up 9:45 on the game clock, the most plays in a drive by the Pack since a 19-play drive on Nov. 14, 2000, led by then-freshman QB Philip Rivers. Unfortunately, the drive against Georgia Tech died at the Tech 9-yard line when the Jackets stopped the Wolfpack on downs on 4th-and-goal.

NC State finally got on the scoreboard on its next possession, driving 49 yards on nine plays and scoring on a 9-yard pass from Mike Glennon to Jay Smith. The Wolfpack cut the lead to seven points at 21-14 when Washington ran 46 yards on the Pack's first play from scrimmage in the second half.

Tech put the game away with a quick flurry of three touchdowns in a span of 2:22 early in the fourth quarter, including a 34-yard interception return for a touchdown by Isaiah Johnson, and a 38-yard TD pass from Tevin Washington to Roddy Jones.

NC State 38, C. Michigan 24

October 8, 2011 | 3:30 p.m.
Carter-Finley Stadium | Raleigh, N.C.
54,388

The first quarter was a slugfest, but NC State responded with 24 unanswered points and an overwhelming defensive performance to turn a close game into an easy victory.

Mike Glennon continued his prolific passing, completing 20 of 36 attempts for 244 yards and four touchdowns, and James Washington broke the 100-yard rushing plateau for the second game in a row.

Defensively, the Pack took advantage of four interceptions and a fumble recovery to stifle Central Michigan over the final three quarters. After CMU took a 17-14 lead five minutes into the second quarter, the Pack held the Chippewas to 109 yards and just three first downs on their next eight possessions.

While the defense was stuffing the CMU offense, Glennon and Co. took over. An 80-yard drive late in the second quarter gave the Wolfpack the lead for good. Glennon completed six of seven passes for 57 yards on the drive, including a two-yard touchdown strike to Steven Howard.

The Pack opened the second half with a 37-yard touchdown drive, set up by a Terrell Manning interception. Washington carried three times for 14 yards and caught a pass for five yards on the drive, and Tobias Palmer caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Glennon to give State a 28-17 lead.

A Brandon Bishop interception with 45 seconds left in the third period put Glennon and the offense in business again, this time at the CMU 38. This drive belonged entirely to Washington, who accounted for 43 yards on the 38-yard TD drive — NC State lost five yards on a penalty. Washington caught a 26-yard pass and carried five times for 17 yards, including a two-yard touchdown run.

In throwing TD passes to four different receivers, Glennon upped his TD-pass total for the season to 17, tied for the eighth-best single-season mark in program history. Only Philip Rivers, Jamie Barnette and Russell Wilson ever threw more TD passes in an entire season than Glennon had through six games this season.

David Amerson had a big game for the defense, intercepting two passes to run his ACC-leading total to six, the most interceptions in a season by an NC State defender since 1998, when Lloyd Harrison had seven.

NC State 28, Virginia 14

October 22, 2011 | 3:30 p.m.
Scott Stadium | Charlottesville, Va.
46,030

Redshirt-freshman receiver Bryan Underwood caught two long touchdown passes, and NC State survived a second-half defensive battle to win in Charlottesville for the first time in 17 years, 28-14.

The Wolfpack spotted the Cavaliers a 7-0 lead early in the second quarter, then scored a pair of touchdowns before intermission to take a 14-7 lead at the half. The touchdowns were the first career TDs for Tony Creecy and Underwood.

The third quarter was dominated by the two defensive units. The first 10 possessions in the third quarter combined to feature nine punts and an interception. Eight of those 10 possessions were three-and-outs, and there was just one first down in that time, by the Wolfpack on a 10-yard Mike Glennon pass to Jay Smith. The two teams combined for 17 punts in the game, 13 of them in the second half, and 11 in the third quarter.

Underwood snapped the offensive drought when he got behind the UVa defense and hauled in a 79-yard touchdown pass from Glennon. That was the longest reception ever by an NC State freshman, and also was Glennon's third touchdown pass of the game, giving him 19 for the season.

The Glennon-to-Underwood bomb gave the Wolfpack a two-touchdown cushion that lasted all of seven seconds. Tim Smith made it a seven-point game again with a 60-yard touchdown catch from David Watford on the first play of Virginia's ensuing possession.

It was all defense after that. NC State held Virginia to three first downs and 54 total yards in the fourth quarter. Wolfpack cornerback David Amerson, the national leader in interceptions, put the game away with a 12-yard interception return for his first career TD with 6:08 left to play, his second pick of the game.

Amerson now has eight interceptions on the season, which ties the school record, set by Art Rooney in 1937 and matched by Rooney a year later. In addition to the two interceptions by Amerson, Brandon Bishop also had a pick for the Wolfpack, giving the team 15 for the season.

The victory by the Pack snapped a five-game losing streak at Scott Stadium, dating back to a 30-27 win on Nov. 25, 1994.

Florida State 34, NC State 0

October 29, 2011 | 12 p.m.
Doak Campbell Stadium | Tallahassee, Fla.

Florida State scored on three of its first four possessions, and went on to hand NC State its first shutout loss in 45 games, since a 34-0 season-opening loss at South Carolina on Aug. 28, 2008.

The Seminoles defense kept the Wolfpack bottled up on its own side of mid-field for virtually the entire game. NC State did not cross the 50-yard line until five plays into the second quarter, and had just two possessions and 11 snaps in Florida State territory the entire game. The first resulted in a missed field goal, the second in a fumble.

NC State entered the game leading the NCAA's Bowl Subdivision with 15 interceptions, and increased that to 16 when junior linebacker Terrell Manning picked off an EJ Manuel pass at the NC State 20 just under four minutes into the second half.

NC State senior wide receiver T.J. Graham returned four kickoffs for 76 yards, giving him 2,908 return yards for his career, which is just 75 yards shy of the ACC career record. Senior linebacker Audie Cole, meanwhile, led the Wolfpack in tackles with 10, the fifth time in eight games he's led the team in stops, and the fifth time he's reached double figures in tackles.

2011 GAME REVIEWS

NC State 13, North Carolina 0

November 5, 2011 | 12:30 p.m.
Carter-Finley Stadium | Raleigh, N.C.
57,583

NC State shut out North Carolina for the first time in since 1960, the first time ever in Raleigh and the sixth time in the 101-game history of the series.

Mike Glennon completed the game's only touchdown drive with a 12-yard pass to T.J. Graham early in the first quarter, capping an eight-play, 64-yard drive, the longest of the game for either side. The Pack also got a pair of field goals from Niklas Sade, one from 26 yards and one from 24, and that was the extent of the scoring.

The rest of the game belonged to the State defense, which completely stuffed the UNC running game. The Pack limited the Tar Heels to just three net yards rushing, thanks in large part to six tackles for 52 yards in losses.

North Carolina crossed midfield on just four possessions and had just 17 of its 58 offensive snaps in NC State territory. And the closer the Tar Heels got to the Wolfpack goal line, the more bad things happened for the visitors. UNC drove to the Wolfpack 38 on its first possession of the game, but Audie Cole put a lid on that by sacking quarterback Bryn Renner for a 19-yard loss. Punter C.J. Feagles then shanked a punt out of bounds for just 27 yards, giving State possession at its own 36 and setting up the game's only touchdown drive.

The Tar Heels stayed safely inside their own 40 the rest of the first half, but drove into Wolfpack territory on the first possession of the third quarter. NC State stopped that drive when cornerback David Amerson intercepted a Renner pass in the end zone and returned it 33 yards. The interception was Amerson's ninth of the season, breaking the school single-season record and setting up the drive that resulted in the Wolfpack's second field goal.

A fourth-quarter UNC penetration to the State 32 got crunched when Terrell Manning, having a monster game, sacked Renner for a 12-yard loss. On its last excursion into enemy territory, the flagship went down without a whimper, turning the ball over on downs at the State 23.

One reason the Pack was able to keep the Tar Heels bottled up in their own territory was the stellar punting of freshman Wil Baumann, who punted seven times for an average of 37.9 yards. Four of Baumann's punts led to North Carolina drives that began at or inside the Tar Heels' 10-yard line.

Amerson, who leads the nation in interceptions, now is tied for second in ACC history for picks in a single season, and is just two off the conference record of 11, set by Dre Bly in 1996. Amerson's interception was one of three by the Wolfpack, which came into the game ranked second nationally with 16. Earl Wolff and Daryl Cato-Bishop also intercepted passes for NC State.

Boston College 14, NC State 10

November 12, 2011 | 12:30 p.m.
Alumni Stadium | Chestnut Hill, Mass.

In a defensive battle in Chestnut Hill, State and Boston College combined for nine three-and-out possessions, 11 punts and just 24 first downs. Boston College managed to do just enough damage to come away with the victory.

The Wolfpack could not have played any better defensively than it did in the second half. BC passed for just four yards after intermission and lost six yards on 15 rushing attempts, coming away with minus-two yards total offense for the third and fourth quarters combined. The Eagles managed just one first down in the second half. Their deepest penetration into NC State territory was to the 44-yard line, and just three of BC's 20 offensive snaps in the second half came in Wolfpack territory.

BC finished the game with just 10 first downs, the fewest by an NC State opponent since Western Carolina had nine in the 2011 season opener.

Unfortunately, State was unable to sustain enough offense to capitalize on the defense's heroics. The Eagles drove 61 yards for a three-yard touchdown run by Josh Bordner on the game's opening possession. The Wolfpack answered with a 61-yard, 14-play drive that ate up seven minutes and 35 seconds, only to stall at the BC 15. The Pack settled for a 32-yard field goal by Nick Sade.

NC State's next four possessions netted just 26 total yards and one first down. The Eagles made it 14-3 when Chase Rettig threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to Colin Lamond with 5:31 left in the first half. That was the end of Boston College's offense for the day, but it was just enough. The Wolfpack cut the score to 14-10 when James Washington scored on a three-yard run midway through the third quarter.

NC State made two more drives deep into BC territory, but the first ended when Donnie Fletcher intercepted a Mike Glennon pass in the end zone. The second ended on downs at the Boston College 27 with 1:10 left to play.

For the Wolfpack, sophomore DB David Amerson notched his NCAA-leading 10th interception when he picked off a Rettig pass at the 1-yard line and returned it 18 yards. Amerson extended his own school single-season record for interceptions.

NC State 37, ⁷Clemson 13

November 19, 2011 | 3:30 p.m.
Carter-Finley Stadium | Raleigh, N.C.
57,583

NC State used its most prolific quarter of offense in six years — a 27-point, five-score outburst — to fuel a stunning blowout of seventh-ranked Clemson. The 24-point margin of victory ranks as NC State's largest over Clemson at Carter-Finley Stadium since a 27-3 win over the Tigers in 1986, and the largest over Clemson overall since a 38-6 rout in Death Valley in 2002.

Ironically, linebacker Terrell Manning got the offense rolling with a pair of key fumble recoveries deep in Clemson territory. On the first, with the Pack leading 7-3, Art Norman sacked quarterback Tajh Boyd at the Clemson 10-yard line. Boyd fumbled on the play, and Manning recovered and returned the ball four yards to the Clemson 6. Two plays later, Glennon threw a seven-yard touchdown pass to Jay Smith. On Clemson's next possession, Manning hit running back Mike Bellamy behind the line of scrimmage, forcing a fumble that Manning recovered at the Clemson 18. That turnover led to a 21-yard field goal by Niklas Sade to increase the lead to 17-3, and NC State was off to the races.

The onslaught continued. Following a Tiger three-and-out, T.J. Graham returned Dawson Zimmerman's punt 34 yards to the Clemson 11. Two plays later, Tony Creecy scored from four yards out to make it 24-3. Sade added a 32-yard field goal at the end of the half to make it 27-3 at intermission and that was that. The State defense held the Tigers to just 13 points and 34 yards net rushing. The Pack gave up just 27 points over the last three games, holding opponents to a combined three TDs and 109 yards rushing in those contests.

The victory was State's first over a top 10 team since a 20-15 victory at Florida State in 2005. The last time NC State won against a top 10 team at home was a 24-7 rout of second-ranked Florida State in 1998. O'Brien now owns a 7-5 mark against ranked teams as the head coach at NC State.

Sophomore cornerback David Amerson pulled down his 11th interception of the season in the third quarter, tying the ACC single-season mark set by Dre Bly of UNC in 1996. In just two seasons, Amerson already has climbed to fifth on the NC State career list for interceptions.

With 34 yards, Graham broke the ACC career record for kickoff-return yardage, breaking the mark of 2,983 set by Maryland's Torrey Smith last year.

NC State 56, Maryland 41

November 26, 2011 | 12:30 p.m.
Carter-Finley Stadium | Raleigh, N.C.
55,323

Trailing 41-14 with less than six minutes to play in the third quarter, NC State staged the largest comeback in school history and beat Maryland going away, scoring 42 points on six touchdowns in the game's final 20:57.

The victory lifted NC State to 7-5 on the season and made the Wolfpack eligible for bowl consideration for the third time in the last four years. State finished the regular season by winning five of its last seven games.

The Wolfpack comeback was so sudden that the Pack took the lead with 7:08 left to play in the game, and then tacked on two more touchdowns before time expired. NC State's previous largest comeback was against Minnesota in the 2000 Micron. pc Bowl. In that game, the Pack came back from a 24-point deficit to win 38-30. The comeback vs. the Terrapins ranks as the second-largest ever in an ACC game.

Turnovers played a huge role in the game. The two teams combined to turn the ball over nine times. Maryland scored three first-half touchdowns off Wolfpack giveaways and led 34-14 at halftime. Three of the Wolfpack's last four scores were set up by two interceptions and a fumble.

NC State quarterback Mike Glennon, who completed 36 of 55 pass attempts for 306 yards, had a career day, tying school records for touchdown responsibility and touchdown passes. Glennon threw for five TDs and rushed for one more, becoming just the second quarterback in State history to account for six touchdowns in a game. Philip Rivers was responsible for six TDs against Navy in 2002. Glennon became the fourth Wolfpack signal caller to throw five touchdown passes in a game, the first since Russell Wilson against Florida State in 2009.

Glennon's five touchdown passes give him 28 for the season, moving him into a tie for third place in the State record book. Wilson threw 28 touchdown passes in 2008. Only Rivers (34 in 2003) and Wilson (31 in 2009) ever threw for more touchdowns in a single season than Glennon has in 2011.

2011 GAME REVIEWS

NC State 31, Louisville 24

December 27, 2011 | 8:00 p.m.
Bank of America Stadium | Charlotte, N.C.

NC State scored 24 unanswered points in the second and third quarters to overwhelm Louisville and give head coach Tom O'Brien his eighth bowl victory in 10 attempts. The victory was NC State's sixth in its last eight games as the Wolfpack finished the season with an 8-5 record.

Quarterback Mike Glennon, who completed 21 of 33 passes for 264 yards and three touchdowns, spearheaded the Wolfpack surge, dissecting the Cardinals with surgical precision on three first-half Wolfpack scoring drives. On those three touchdown drives, Glennon completed 13 of 14 passes for 194 yards.

On the first, on State's first possession of the game, Glennon went 6-for-7 passing for 46 yards and gave the Pack a 7-0 lead with a six-yard strike to T.J. Graham. The second drive began with 6:01 left in the second quarter and began the Wolfpack's 24-point scoring binge. This time Glennon completed all five pass attempts for 80 yards, capping the drive with a 35-yard strike to Tobais Palmer. State got the ball back a few minutes later and Glennon responded with what was essentially a one-play drive. Following a pass completion for no gain to James Washington, Glennon went deep to Graham, who slipped behind the Louisville defense, for a 68-yard touchdown pass.

The Wolfpack took a 21-10 lead into the locker room at halftime, then drove 60 yards on 14 plays to begin the third quarter with a 34-yard field goal from Niklas Sade. The State scoring onslaught concluded when David Amerson returned an interception 65 yards for a touchdown and a 31-10 lead. The pick was Amerson's 12th of the season, tying the ACC record. He broke the record in the fourth quarter, essentially ending the game with an interception at the Wolfpack 16-yard line with 41 seconds to play. Amerson's single-season mark tied as the second best in FBS history.

Glennon finished his first season as the Wolfpack's signal caller with 31 touchdown passes, tied for the second-best mark in school history. Russell Wilson had 31 in 2009. Only San Diego Chargers' Pro Bowl quarterback Philip Rivers had more TD passes in a single season for the Wolfpack with 34 in 2003. In terms of yardage, Glennon passed for 3,054 for the season, tied as the fifth-best mark in school history.

Glennon's three touchdown passes vs. Louisville were the second most by an NC State QB in a bowl game. Rivers threw for five scores when the Wolfpack routed Kansas 56-26 in the 2003 Tangerine Bowl.

BOLD FACE indicates current player

Damon Hartman kicked a 56-yard field goal in a three-point win over North Carolina in 1990. That's the longest field goal in school history.

Howard Turner's 105-yard interception return against Duke in 1947 will forever stand as the longest play in Wolfpack history.

RETIRED JERSEYS

ROMAN GABRIEL

At NC State:

A two-time All-American, Roman Gabriel starred at quarterback for NC State in the early 1960s and finished his career holding virtually every Wolfpack passing record. An academic All-American, Gabriel saw his jersey retired and presented to him by Governor Terry Sanford on Jan. 20, 1962 at halftime of an NC State-Maryland basketball game in Reynolds Coliseum. A first-round draft pick by the Los Angeles Rams, he went on to a distinguished professional career.

In the Professional Ranks:

Gabriel played 15 seasons in the NFL, splitting time with the Los Angeles Rams (1962-72) and the Philadelphia Eagles (1973-77). He was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 1969 and earned Pro Bowl spots in 1967, 1968, 1969 and 1970. He was the MVP of the 1970 Pro Bowl. He ranked as the Rams' all-time passing leader with 22,223 yards and 154 touchdowns (1,705 com./3,313 att.) and threw for 7,221 yards and 45 touchdowns (661 com./1,185 att.) with the Eagles. In 1973, he led the NFL with 3,219 yards and 23 touchdown passes. He still holds the Rams' career records for: touchdown passes (154), passing yards (22,223), passes attempted (3,313), and passes completed (1,705). Gabriel was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

Elected to the inaugural class of the NC State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2012.

JIM RITCHER
(OL)

At NC State:

Jim Ritcher is one of three Atlantic Coast Conference players to win the Outland Trophy, awarded annually to the nation's premier lineman. A two-time consensus All-American, Ritcher won the award as a Wolfpack senior in 1979, when he literally cleared the way for NC State to win the ACC Championship. Still an active member of the Wolfpack family, Ritcher, whose sons John and Harrison both played for NC State, thrived in the NFL for 16 years, playing in four Super Bowls with the Buffalo Bills. Ritcher's No. 51 was retired on Feb. 8, 1987. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1998.

In the Professional Ranks:

A first-round draft choice in 1980, Ritcher went on to play 16 seasons in the NFL, splitting time with the Buffalo Bills (1980-93) and the Atlanta Falcons (1994-95). An All-Pro choice in 1986, 1988, and 1990, Ritcher played in the 1992 and 1993 Pro Bowls. He also played in four Super Bowls with Buffalo and played in more games than any other Buffalo Bill (225). He was inducted into the Buffalo Hall of Fame in 2005 and was the recipient of the Gerald R. Ford Legends Award in 2009.

Elected to the inaugural class of the NC State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2012.

DICK CHRISTY
(HB)

At NC State:

Scoring all 29 of NC State's points, Dick Christy earned the Wolfpack its first Atlantic Coast Conference Championship in a 29-26 win in the Pack's season-finale at South Carolina on Nov. 23, 1957. Christy earned first team All-America recognition from the Associated Press and United Press International for his efforts that season. He ended his career in '57 holding 14 NC State records and four ACC records. Nearly 40 years later, Christy's jersey was retired on Nov. 8, 1997 in a game against Maryland. He died in a car accident in 1965 and was named to the ACC's Silver Anniversary Team in 1978.

In the Professional Ranks:

Christy played five seasons in the NFL, splitting time with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1958), Boston Patriots (1960) and the New York Titans (1961-63). He was selected to play in the 1962 AFL All-Star game and led the AFL and NFL in punt returns in 1961 and 1962 with 21.3 and 16.7 yards per return, respectively. In 1962, he was named his team's MVP, when he led the squad in rushing, punt returns and kickoff returns.

(RB)

At NC State:

Ted Brown is inarguably the greatest running back to play for NC State, if not in the Atlantic Coast Conference. A native of High Point, N.C., Brown rushed for a school and ACC record 4,602 yards from 1975-78. He scored 51 touchdowns during his career, which stood as the top mark in ACC history until 2005. His jersey was retired during pregame ceremonies prior to his final home game on Nov. 18, 1978 against Duke. He was a first-round draft pick of the Minnesota Vikings where he enjoyed an all-star career.

In the Professional Ranks:

Brown starred for eight seasons in the NFL as a member of the Minnesota Vikings squad from 1979-86. He scored 53 career touchdowns (40 rushing and 13 receiving), the fifth-best mark in Viking history. His 4,546 career rushing yards ranks third in the history of that franchise.

Elected to the inaugural class of the NC State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2012.

(WR)

At NC State:

Torry Holt was a human highlight film for NC State from 1995-98, and culminated his career by being named a consensus All-American. Holt rewrote the Wolfpack record books, setting single game, single season and career records in almost every passing category. He also set an ACC record with 3,379 reception yards for his career. The two-time All-ACC performer was named the ACC Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year following his senior campaign, and was also a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award, honoring the nation's top wide receiver. His jersey was retired on Jan. 16, 1999 during halftime ceremonies of the final NC State-UNC basketball contest that was played in Reynolds Coliseum.

In the Professional Ranks:

Holt was a first-round draft pick of the Saint Louis Rams in 1999, the sixth selection overall, and made the Pro Bowl seven times. He won a Super Bowl ring during his rookie campaign, and in the process set Super Bowl rookie records with seven catches and 109 receiving yards. He was the first player in NFL history to record five straight seasons with 1,300 receiving yards, and he was the fifth-fastest in NFL history to 5,000 yards and fourth-fastest to 500 career receptions. Holt played with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2009 and the New England Patriots in 2010 before announcing his retirement. He now serves as an analyst for the NFL Network.

DENNIS BYRD
(DL)

At NC State:

Dennis Byrd was a dominating presence for the Wolfpack's famed "White Shoes" defense, competing on the defensive line for NC State from 1965-67. An adept pass rusher who combined size, agility, strength and a desire for hitting, Byrd was the Pack's first consensus All-American, earning honors in 1967. He was also the first three-time All-ACC player in league history, earning accolades all three years that he lettered. As a junior, he led the voting for All-ACC lineman and after his senior campaign, participated in four college all-star games. Byrd, who passed away in July of 2010, was inducted into the National Football Foundation's Hall of Fame in December of that year.

In the Professional Ranks:

Byrd was a first-round draft pick of the Boston Patriots of the American Football League in 1968.

63

(OG)

At NC State:

A consensus All-American guard, Bill Yoest lettered for the Wolfpack from 1970-73 and was the recipient of the 1973 Jacobs Blocking Trophy. A Pittsburgh native, Yoest won All-America honors from the Associated Press, UPI, Football Writers, Football Coaches, NEA and Walter Camp that season. Yoest was selected for two postseason all-star games, the '74 Hula Bowl and the East-West Shrine Game, in which he was elected co-captain of the East squad. His No. 63 was retired at halftime of the North Carolina game, Sept. 27, 2003.

In the Professional Ranks:

Yoest played a short stint with the Orlando Blazers of the World Football League and then returned to Raleigh, where he started a financial services business.

17

PHILIP RIVERS

At NC State:

The 2003 ACC Player of the Year, Philip Rivers started all 51 games at quarterback for the Wolfpack over his four years, an NCAA record. Rivers rewrote the record books for both NC State and the ACC in every passing and total offense category. Rivers ended up the second-leading passer in NCAA history with 13,494 career passing yards and 13,582 career yards of total offense and finished tied for fifth in NCAA history with 95 career TD passes. The Athens, Ala., native capped off his marvelous career with a stellar senior season in which he led the nation with a 72.0 completion percentage and 170.49 pass efficiency rating. Rivers became the first QB in ACC history and only the seventh in NCAA history to throw for 3,000 yards in three different seasons. The MVP of the 2003 Tangerine Bowl with his fifth 400-yard passing day of the year, Rivers was also named the MVP of the Senior Bowl. His jersey, number 17, was retired before his final home game, Nov. 22, 2003.

In the Professional Ranks:

A first-round draft choice, Rivers was selected by the New York Giants with the fourth pick of the 2004 NFL Draft and was traded to the San Diego Chargers minutes later. He has been selected to the Pro Bowl four times.

First or Second-Team Selections

John Ripple

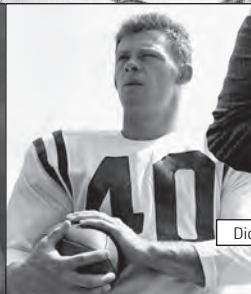

Elmer Costa

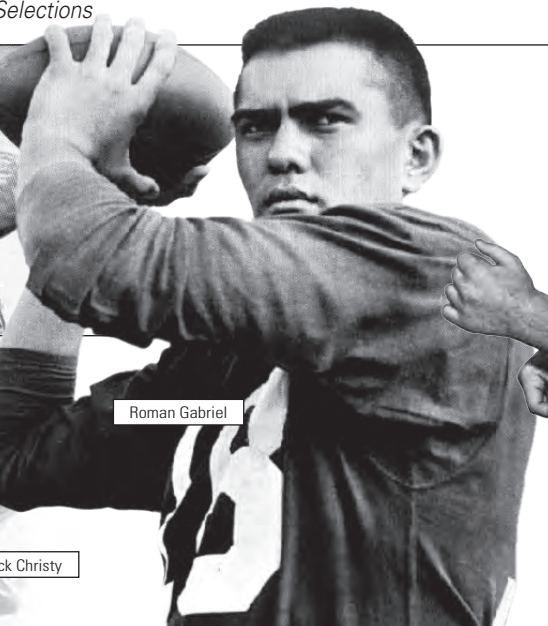

Ty Coon

Steve Sabol

Dick Christy

Roman Gabriel

John Ripple, Tackle

1918 - Walter Camp (2nd)

NC State's first All-American selection, John Ripple was also the first collegiate player in the state of North Carolina to be named to the prestigious Walter Camp squad. At 6-0, 180 pounds, he had never played football until making the squad as a sophomore in 1918.

Steve Sabol, Center

1935 - Newspaper Enterprise Assoc. (2nd) Associated Press (3rd)

A Campbell, Ohio, native, Sabol became the Pack's starting center as a sophomore in 1933. The 6-0, 190-pounder played every snap in eight of State College's nine contests that season, sitting out just one quarter: the final period in a rout of Catawba. He was a three-time All-Southern Conference selection (1933-35) during his career.

Ed "Ty" Coon, Tackle

1938 - World Telegram (2nd); College Humor (2nd); 1939 - Newspaper Enterprise Association (2nd); New York Sun (2nd); Hearst (3rd); Dr. L.H. Baker (3rd)

This All-Southern Conference selection played on the Wolfpack varsity squad from 1938-40. A 6-3, 202 pounder from Watertown, Conn., Coon had his best game against highly ranked Alabama in 1938, when he led the defense in tackles and blocked a punt.

Elmer Costa, Tackle

1949 - UPI (HM); 1950 - Chicago Tribune (1st)

At 220 pounds, Elmer Costa was touted as the heaviest player on the Wolfpack squad in the late 40s. A two-time All-Southern Conference honoree, he helped the Pack earn a huge upset versus Maryland in 1950 in NC State's first televised game. He was named the AP's National Lineman of the Week for that performance.

Dick Christy, Halfback

1957 - Associated Press (1st); UPI (1st)

Dick Christy starred on the freshman squad in 1954, advancing to the varsity the following year. At 5-10, 190 pounds, he led the team in rushing with 602 yards that season, and then ran for 589 yards, threw for 123 yards and returned kickoffs and touchdowns in 1956. He will always be remembered for scoring all 29 points in NC State's ACC Title-clinching 29-26 win over South Carolina in 1957. He was named the ACC Player of the Year and ACC Athlete of the Year as a senior.

At 6-4, 200 pounds, Roman Gabriel began his collegiate career as a star in the defensive secondary as well as being the Wolfpack signal caller. The Wilmington, N.C., native was tabbed as the National Sophomore Back of the Year by The Saturday Evening Post and Playboy prior to his sophomore campaign. He didn't disappoint, leading the NCAA in completion percentage with a school record .604 in 1959. He threw for a then-school record 2,951 yards passing for his career, including 19 touchdowns. He ranked eighth nationally in total offense in 1960 and 14th during his senior campaign. He was named the ACC Player of the Year in 1960 and 1961 and was a 1960 Academic All-American. He went on to a spectacular professional career, earning four trips to the Pro Bowl and being named the NFL's MVP in 1969.

Don Montgomery, End

1963 - Football Writers (2nd)

A 6-2, 216 pound end from Albemarle, N.C., Don Montgomery overcame injuries in his first two collegiate campaigns and earned All-ACC honors as a junior in 1962. He also enjoyed great success for the Wolfpack on the baseball diamond, earning second-team all-league status.

Dennis Byrd, Defensive Tackle

1966 - Football Writers (1st); NEA (1st); Associated Press (2nd); 1967 - Consensus 1st Team (Associated Press, UPI, The Sporting News, NEA, Football Writers, Football Coaches, Central Press, Time Magazine, Walter Camp Foundation, Playboy)

At 6-4, 257 pounds, Dennis Byrd dominated many big games during his career with the Wolfpack. He was the first player in ACC history to earn three first-team All-ACC honors and became NC State's first consensus All-American.

Fred Combs, Defensive Back

1967 - Football Writers (1st); UPI (2nd); Associated Press (HM)

A key member of the "White Shoes" defense in 1967, Fred Combs contributed two punt returns for touchdowns over 70 yards and a 70-yard interception return for a score that season. The Hertford, N.C., native set an ACC record with 434 yards in punt returns that season and sealed the win versus second-ranked Houston with an interception.

Gerald Warren, Kicker

1967 - Associated Press (2nd); 1968 - Associated Press (1st)

An Elizabeth City, N.C., native, Gerald Warren set an NCAA record with 17 field goals during the 1967 campaign. He finished the year with 70 kicking points, another national best. He also became the first kicker ever to lead the ACC in scoring.

Ron Carpenter, Defensive Tackle

1968 - NEA (1st)

A 6-5, 255-pounder from High Point, N.C., Ron Carpenter was a two-time All-ACC selection and earned All-America honors as a junior. He went on to the NFL in 1970, starting for seven seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Carey Metts, Center

1968 - Football Writers (2nd)

A 6-2, 230-pounder from Greensboro, N.C., Carey Metts played almost every snap during his sophomore, junior and senior campaigns. He came to NC State after playing a year at Elon College.

Bill Yoest, Guard

1973 - Consensus 1st Team (Associated Press, UPI, Football Writers, Football Coaches, NEA, Walter Camp)

A 6-0, 243 pound Pittsburgh, Pa., native, Bill Yoest moved into the starting lineup as a sophomore in 1970, but his football career almost ended when he had surgery to remove part of a vertebra following the season. After redshirting in 1971, he regained his starter's position and was an All-ACC honoree as a junior. In addition to being named a consensus All-American in 1973, he also won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy for the ACC.

Stan Fritts, Fullback

1974 - Associated Press (2nd)

An Oak Ridge, Tenn., native, Stan Fritts tallied an ACC record 42 touchdowns during his career at State, despite his 6-0, 165 pound frame. He also set what was then a school rushing record with 2,542 yards. He was an All-ACC performer as a sophomore and senior and was a 1973 Academic All-American.

Ted Brown, Running Back

1978 - Consensus 1st Team (Associated Press, UPI, Football Writers, Football Coaches)

A 5-11, 170 pound High Point, N.C., native, Ted Brown, was named the ACC Freshman of the Year in 1975 and went on to set the league record for career rushing yards that still stands (4,602 yards). He is the only player in league history to earn four first-team All-ACC honors. When he finished his career, he ranked fourth on the NCAA Division I all-time career rushing chart, trailing only Tony Dorsett, Archie Griffin and Ed Marinaro with 4,602 yards. He was a four-time All-ACC performer and went on to play seven years with the Minnesota Vikings.

COACH TOM O'BRIEN AND TOYS FOR TOTS

Tom O'Brien is on the national board of the Marine Corps' Toys for Tots program and has brought his passion for that cause to NC State.

Each year at a selected home game, fans from both teams are encouraged to bring toys and donations. Also, Coca-Cola has donated $500 for every touchdown the Pack scored during the season.

A highlight of the last four years has been the shopping trip when the players are able to purchase toys that will be given to children over the holidays. Since O'Brien came to NC State, Wolfpack fans have donated over $200,000 and 25,000 to Toys for Tots.

CARTER-FINLEY STADIUM

In its 47 years of existence, Carter-Finley Stadium has earned a reputation as one of the most exciting venues in college football, mainly due to the dedication of Wolfpack fans. In the past decade, the facility has been renovated to match the excellence of the people who fill it and has become known as one of the finest football venues in the nation for both its atmosphere and its facilities.

The south end zone is the home of the 103,254 square-foot Murphy Center, which is unequalled in its design for the training and preparation of athletes.

The Wolfpack squad practices just a stone's throw away at the Dail Practice Complex. This area covers seven acres and boasts three full fields, a training room, restrooms and a video/coaching tower.

The A.E. Finley Fieldhouse in the north end zone houses two spacious, state-of-the-art locker rooms that can be divided into smaller locker rooms when NC State plays host to high school championship games. There are also halftime locker room areas for the cheerleaders, the dance team, game referees and coaches.

Rising above the fieldhouse is the 100'x40' HD scoreboard.

C. RICHARD VAUGHN TOWERS

Vaughn Towers dominates the skyline around Carter-Finley Stadium as it rises above the west stands. The 117,000 square-foot structure, which stretches from endzone to endzone, includes four levels, 51 private luxury suites and 955 club seats, as well as a University Suite for the Chancellor. The state-of-the-art facility also includes accommodations for the media, with 112 press seats.

The facility is named for Richard Vaughn, a resident of Mount Airy, who graduated from NC State with a degree in nuclear engineering.

WAYNE T. DAY FAMILY FIELD

Named for Wolfpack alumnus Wayne T. Day in 2002, the playing surface at Carter-Finley Stadium was reconstructed in 2009. The new playing surface is built to USGA specifications for a golf green. The USGA specification has an elaborate drainage system and a 10" rootzone mix that is 90% sand and 10% peat. The field has Tiftway 419 hybrid bermudagrass from Sandhills turf farm in North Carolina. The irrigation system consists of 6 "big gun" sprinklers that spray over 200 gallons per minute. The water source is well water that is contained in tanks.

THE WENDELL H. MURPHY FOOTBALL CENTER

CHAMPIONS ON THE FOOTBALL FIELD — CHAMPIONSHIP FACILITIES

When it comes to football operations facilities, there is none in the country as fine as the Wendell H. Murphy Center. The 103,254-square-foot complex houses every aspect of Wolfpack football, from sports medicine, to equipment, to strength training, to academics. As functional as it is aesthetically pleasing, the Murphy Center is definitely the Wolfpack's den.

The Murphy Center (known as "The Murph" to the Wolfpack players) is the largest operations facility in the country devoted solely to football. Visitors enter the building through Gant Plaza, where the 28' "Wolfpack Turf" statue and fountain stands proudly.

Visitors to the Murphy Center can experience the rich heritage of Wolfpack Football in the Finley Hall of Champions. This multimedia complex highlights NC State's football tradition with photos, artifacts and interactive exhibits. Fans can watch video highlights in the Woolard Theater and younger Wolfpackers can have fun in the Junior Wolfpack Zone.

From the lobby, double doors open into the massive Gunter Family strength training facility, which runs the entire length of the building and covers 15,000 square-feet. The facility houses huge area for stretching, a track, a juice bar and over 15 tons of weights.

The third floor of the Murphy Center houses a large dining room and a players' lounge that overlooks Wayne Day Family Field. The lounge contains couches, pool tables, ping-pong tables, wide-screen TVs and video games for the Wolfpack players to enjoy during breaks.

A large team meeting room and meeting rooms for each position are also on the third floor. Each room is equipped with the latest video playback equipment for reviewing film and breaking down an athlete's performance. That level also houses offices for the Wolfpack's academic advisors, as well as a large study room with computers in the Kirkland Academic Suite.

On the fourth floor, the coaches' offices, a large staff conference room, offensive and defensive meeting rooms, a television studio and the video production offices can be found.

The heartbeat of the Murphy Center is on the bottom floor. The beautiful locker room stretches the length of the building on one side of the hall, boasting 114 custom wood lockers, bathrooms, showers, a stereo and TVs. The other side of the hall is home to the equipment room and the state-of-the-art sports medicine facility, which covers 6,000 square feet and includes an aquatics area with three pools.

The building is named for Wendell H. Murphy, a lifelong supporter of both athletic and academic initiatives at NC State. A member of the NC State Board of Trustees, Murphy was awarded the prestigious Watauga Medal in 1999, the school's highest award given for outstanding and distinguished service.

WOLFPACK TURF

Former Wolfpack football player and master sculptor Dick Idol, created the "Wolfpack Turf" monument, which rises from the plaza in front of the Murphy Center. The statue is made up of six wolves, each two-times life size, standing on a 21-foot stone mountain.

Each wolf on the sculpture has a name which represents one of the characteristics of a wolf and of a Wolfpack football player:

CONFIDENCE, PASSION, SPIRIT, COURAGE, PRIDE AND STRENGTH

ADMINISTRATION

DR. RANDY WOODSON

CHANCELLOR

Dr. Randy Woodson is the 14th chancellor of North Carolina State University. A nationally recognized leader in bridging the gap between vision and action, he has led the development and implementation of the university's strategic plan to improve student success, faculty excellence, and engagement and economic development. In addition to this transformative plan, Woodson has led a strategic realignment to mold the university for greater efficiency and effectiveness in the face of decreasing resources. His reputation for consensus-building has given voice to a diverse university community, creating opportunities for multi-disciplinary collaboration and unifying university constituents to focus on enhancing student success and the value of an NC State degree. These shifts will continue to guide the university as it unites and adapts a cherished tradition with the constantly evolving landscape of higher education.

During his tenure, Woodson has overseen the largest private gift in university history. Through the creation of the Faculty Excellence Fund Woodson has inspired inventive faculty research rewarding creativity and entrepreneurship. Under his leadership, NC State remains the 3rd best value among public universities in the U.S. and, according to a Wall Street Journal study, ranks 19th overall by recruiters for nearly 500 public and private corporations, non-profits and federal agencies across the nation.

Woodson arrived at NC State from Purdue University, where he served as executive vice president for academic affairs and provost. He took on the role of provost in 2008, after serving nearly four years as the Glenn W. Sample Dean of Agriculture. Prior to that, Woodson was the associate dean of agriculture and director of the Office of Agricultural Research Programs at Purdue from 1998 to 2004.

Woodson's career has been shaped by the land-grant university system, receiving a B.S. in Horticulture from the University of Arkansas and a M.S. and Ph.D. in Plant Physiology from Cornell University. He joined the Purdue faculty in 1985 as an assistant professor in the Department of Horticulture. Prior to his administrative appointments, Woodson also served as head of the Department of Horticulture and Landscape Architecture at Purdue and was a visiting scholar at the École Nationale Supérieure Agronomique de Toulouse in France.

Over his decades-long career in higher education, Dr. Woodson has contributed a substantial body of knowledge to the field of plant science, which has been published in over 100 journal articles and book chapters. His research has covered topics such as plant genetics, molecular biology, biotechnology and sustainable bioproducts development, spanning the gap between the detailed science of plant physiology and the practical application of this knowledge in the field of horticulture. His research has been featured in stories published in BusinessWeek, The Futurist, and Discover.

Woodson has received a number of professional honors during his career, including the Purdue University Agriculture Research Award, the American Society for Horticultural Science Outstanding Researcher Career Award and the Sagamore of the Wabash Award, the highest award presented by the governor of Indiana for service. He is a fellow of the American Society for Horticultural Science.

Woodson and his wife, Susan, have three adult children.

DEBORAH A. YOW

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

When it comes to energy, Debbie Yow runs on 220 volts of full-powered current.

Named NC State's director of athletics on June 25, 2010, by Chancellor Randy Woodson, Yow laid out a comprehensive and energized vision for the future of the department, which she calls "Wolfpack Unlimited: Refuse To Accept the Status Quo."

Yow's expectations are clear and concise:

- Every sport with a full complement of scholarships should be among the nation's top 25, working towards the top 10 and competing for conference and national championships.
- Every student-athlete should be given the opportunity and resources to be as successful in the classroom as on the field of competition.
- Every alumnus and supporter should be treated as a valued customer, with dedicated service resources from athletics department personnel.

In her first two years on the job, Yow, who held similar positions for four years at Saint Louis and 16 years at Maryland, has made significant changes to the structure and branding of the athletics department. She's hired five new head coaches: men's basketball coach Mark Gottfried, men's soccer coach Kelly Findley, men's and women's swimming coach Braden Holloway (a former NC State swimmer), wrestling coach Pat Popolizio and most recently softball coach Shawn Rychcik. She also brought in nationally renowned Bob Alejo to serve as the director of the strength and conditioning programs for all student-athletes.

Senior administration has been geared to oversee the implementation of her vision for the Wolfpack's future success. She has also helped change the face of NC State athletics with overall improvements and upgrades to administrative and competitive facilities on campus.

The department has established Wolfpack Sports Properties in a new working agreement for multi-media rights with Learfield Communications and Capital Broadcasting Co.; a department-wide apparel agreement with Adidas Sports; and a new Five-Year Strategic Plan. She also led in the creation of the comprehensive NC State Athletics Hall of Fame.

Yow has made it clear to her coaches and staff that they will be given the resources they need to be competitive at the highest level of college athletics. She has also made clear her expectations for all 23 varsity programs at the school.

In her first two years, the department has seen unprecedented improvements in the Director's Cup rankings, a compilation of accomplishments for all NCAA varsity sports where the program moved from No. 89 to No. 37 in two years, a return to the NCAA's Sweet Sixteen for men's basketball, Top 25 finishes and NCAA postseason appearance in numerous sports. A record number of student-athletes graduated in the spring of 2012 and NC State had its highest number ever ACC All-Academic honorees.

Yow knows the importance of her position, leading the gateway department of the largest institution of her home state. The ACC's first female athletics director also knows NC State's reputation as a pioneering program that first established basketball as a dominant sport in the South, was the first to integrate varsity athletics in the Atlantic Coast Conference and was the first public school in the state to dedicate full resources to women's athletics.

Hardly unfamiliar to Wolfpack fans, the native of Gibsonville, N.C., has been deeply connected to NC State since her youth, when her parents Hilton and Lib Yow introduced their three daughters and one son to college athletics. At the time, that meant legendary basketball coach Everett Case's fast-breaking style that dominated the early days of ACC basketball.

Later, she watched her older sister, Kay, become the first full-time women's coach in the state of North Carolina, when she was hired by then-athletics director Willis Casey to coach NC State's first three women's sports: basketball, volleyball and softball. Her first all-star, and the first women's All-American in NC State history, was the youngest of the Yow sisters, Susan.

For the next 34 years, Kay Yow served primarily as the Wolfpack women's basketball coach, winning numerous ACC championships and coaching the women's U.S. Olympic Team to the gold medal during her Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame career. Through her family ties, Debbie Yow always had an affinity for the school that opened the door for her family's role in major Division I athletics.

Debbie Yow served as a high school coach at Burlington's Williams High School and Gibsonville's Eastern Guilford High before becoming the women's basketball coach at the University of Kentucky. She also served as the head coach at Oral Roberts University and the University of Florida, before switching career paths to become an administrator, at both Florida and UNC Greensboro. In 1990, she was named the athletics director at Saint Louis, where she hired Charlie Spoonhour as men's basketball coach. Spoonhour was named ESPN National Coach of the Year in 1994.

She moved to the University of Maryland in 1994 and in 2000 selected Ralph Friedgen as football coach. Friedgen was named consensus National Coach of the Year in 2001 after leading the Terps to the ACC championship and an appearance in the Orange Bowl. In 2002, she brought in Brenda Frese, the 2002 Big Ten and AP National Coach of the Year, to guide the Terrapin women's basketball program. In 2006, Frese led Maryland to the NCAA championship.

Under her leadership, Maryland's 27 varsity programs won a remarkable 20 national championships and consistently graduated student-athletes, including an all-time high federal graduation rate of 80 percent. In 2009, the NCAA News named Maryland as one of the Top 10 athletics programs in the nation.

At NC State, Yow oversees a department with 23 sports that includes approximately 185 full-time staff and 525 student-athletes.

Yow has served as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics and the national Division I-A Athletic Directors Association. She is a member of the National Football Foundation board of directors, as well as the USA Football board of directors and has served on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Academic Enhancement Committee, as well as having represented the ACC on the NCAA Management Council.

Both Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal and the Chronicle of Higher Education have cited Yow as being one of the 20 most influential people in college athletics. She was selected to serve on the President's U.S. Department of Education Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She earlier served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television, which is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and other related broadcast issues.

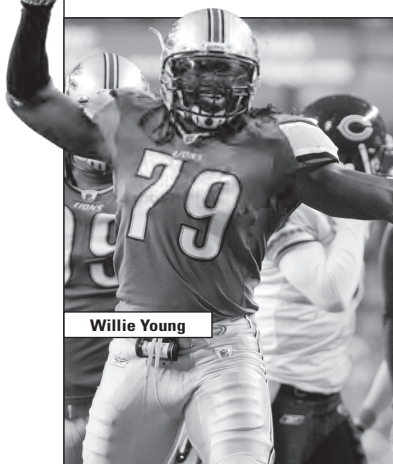

Like her older sister, Yow has been inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame.

Yow has written numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior. She holds a bachelor's degree from Elon University and a master's degree from Liberty University. She also has been awarded honorary doctorates for professional achievement from Elon, Liberty and the United States Sports Academy.

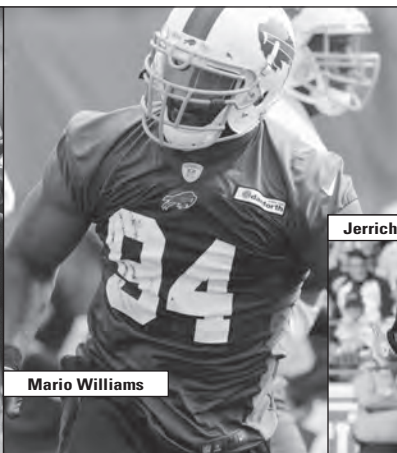

She has been married to Dr. William W. Bowden since 1984.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Credentials for NC State home games are issued for working media only. Credentials will be mailed if time permits or will be left at the press will-call at Gate 5 on the Trinity Road side of the Murphy Center at Carter-Finley Stadium.

Requests should be made in writing to Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations Annabelle Myers at annabelle_myers@ncsu.edu

PRACTICE

NC State football practices are closed to the media, but a limited portion of practice may be open to photographers upon request. Players are available following practice on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings and Coach O'Brien is available following Thursday morning practice. Please check with the media relations staff to determine what time practice will conclude.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

MONDAY MEDIA CONFERENCE

Coach O'Brien will play host to a weekly media conference on Mondays at 1:30 p.m. in the Murphy Center Media Room. Two Wolfpack players (one offense, one defense) will also be in attendance. Coach O'Brien will visit with the print media, then the electronic media.

The media conference may also be accessed by appropriate media outlets via teleconference. Please call the Media Relations Office to obtain the number.

POST-PRACTICE INTERVIEWS

Interviews will be conducted only after all practice and conditioning work is completed. Players are available following practice on Tuesday and Wednesday, and Coach O'Brien is available on Thursday. Assistant coaches are available all three days.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following a brief cooling-off period, Coach O'Brien will be brought to the Murphy Center Media Room.

Requests for players will be collected in the press box, midway through the fourth quarter. A representative from the Media Relations Office will also collect requests from the on-field media near the end of the game. Those players will be brought to the media room following O'Brien's session.

INJURY REPORTS

If a player is injured during the course of a game, an announcement will be made in the press box regarding the type of injury and if the player is expected to return to the game.

The Media Relations Office will send out an updated injury report on Thursday mornings 90 minutes following the conclusion of practice for conference games only. There will be no other updates on injuries during the week.

GAME DAY SERVICES

Press Box - The NC State press box is located in Vaughn Towers on the west side of Carter-Finley Stadium.

Press Parking - Press parking is located in the Fairgrounds Lot, closest to Gate B.

Media Services - Complete individual and team statistics, running play-by-play and post-game coaches' quotes and notes are provided for all working media. Complete game books will also be delivered to the postgame interview area. A pregame meal is also available for the media approximately 90 minutes before kickoff.

A fax machine will also be available for filing. Writers needing items faxed should contact a member of the media relations staff prior to the game.

Photographers - Phones line and wireless access for filing are available in Vaughn Towers and on field level in the north endzone media room.

To gain field access, photographers must also wear a vest. Vests may be signed for 90 minutes prior to kickoff in the media area of Vaughn Towers. In accordance with NCAA and Atlantic Coast Conference rules, photographers will not be allowed between the 25-yard lines. Only WORKING photographers will be allowed on the field during the game. A media relations representative will be on the field at all times to assist the photographers with any needs they may have.

WOLFPACK SPORTS NETWORK

The Wolfpack Sports Network, one of the strongest collegiate sports networks in the nation, will be heard for the 52nd year throughout North Carolina and globally via GoPack.com's All-Access multimedia channel during the 2012 football season.

The network is managed by Wolfpack Sports Properties, a joint venture between Learfield Sports and Raleigh's Capitol Broadcasting Company. It covers three of the 45 largest radio markets in the country and is made up of over 20 affiliates that effectively blanket the state from the mountains to the coast. The flagship station is the powerful WRAL-FM, MIX 101.5 in Raleigh.

All the action is brought to the devoted Wolfpack listeners by veteran play-by-play man and former North Carolina Sportscaster of the Year, Gary Hahn, who is in his 23rd season as the voice of the Wolfpack. Joining Hahn in the booth is former Wolfpack All-American Johnny Evans, who provides color commentary. Manning the sidelines will be NC State alumnus Tony Haynes, now in his 14th season covering NC State football.

Following each contest, the network follows the Pack into the locker room for live interviews with head coach Tom O'Brien and NC State's players.

For more information about the Wolfpack Sports Network, contact Wolfpack Sports Properties, 4000 West Chase Blvd, Suite 475, Raleigh, NC 27607, or call (919) 831-9653.
